This is an open event for all conference participants, specifically if you're a scientist, climate and ocean policy maker, marine and fisheries manager, communications professional, community leaders and anyone who wants to learn more about OA!

The OA Research for Sustainability Programme (OARS) is supporting critical outcomes of the UN Decade. Together, we are:

- Raising awareness of OA globally and locally closing knowledge and capacity gaps (science and policy)
- Defining pathways for policy action

Co-hosted by:
